Asian Pacific American Celebration

May 25, 2006; 10:00-11:00 a.m.

Speaker – Dr. Dai Phan

A Boat Person's Story

This lecture reflects the personal experience of Dr. Dai Phan who escaped from Viet Nam in 1978 as a boat person after the Viet Nam war ended in 1975. He will tell stories of survival from the last hours before Saigon fell to his harrowing escape at sea in search of freedom. He will also recollect his life from the makeshift refugee camp in Indonesia to his journey to America. Dr. Phan is a Maxillofacial Prosthodontist (DDS) currently employed at the New Mexico Health Care System, Department of Veterans Administration. He has lectured nationally on various dental topics.

Location – 381 ABC

Action Item: Andi/Geraldine reserve conference room and put on Karen Boardman/Frank Baca calendar
